Eduardo Alessandro Studios was established in 1978 to showcase established and emerging artistic talent from the UK and abroad.

We are delighted to host Odyssey, a major solo exhibition of new works by Nael Hanna, one of the most talented and distinctive landscape artists working in Scotland.

Foreword

Dundee based Nael Hanna has long been regarded as one of the UK's most visionary landscape painters. His renowned and highly expressive depictions of the Scottish north east coastline have garnered wide spread public and critical praise for over 30 years since he graduated from Dundee's Duncan of Jordanstone Art College to great acclaim.

Odyssey is the artist's fifth solo show with Eduardo Alessandro Studios over a near 30 year collaboration between gallery and artist. This catalogue shows highlights from the exhibition

Biography

Born in 1959 in Nineva, Northern Iraq, Nael was conscripted to serve in the Iraq Army during the Iraq-Iran War, before being wounded in action. After a period of convalescing he was encouraged to submit a painting to a national competition and was presented with the first prize by none other than Saddam Hussein! Nael's reward was a Scholarship to study in the UK. In 1983 he entered Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art in Dundee to study drawing and painting.

In 1987, Nael won a scholarship to further study at the acclaimed Hospitalfield Summer School, Arbroath and it was during this time that he started his life-long exploration of the dramatic coastlines of the Scottish east coast.

He has exhibited in many countries including Malaysia, Egypt and the USA, and at the RGI, RSA, SSA and SSAC and with prominent galleries throughout the UK.

His works are included within major Public and Private Collections worldwide.
